III. Tour Requirements:

In order to maintain professionally high standards for the studio tour and in respect for our audience who has an expectation that artists will be in attendance as publicized, all tour artists must agree to be in attendance at their assigned studios for the duration of the tour weekend and agree to the following:

If I am a host artist:

1. I will not allow any unregistered artists to display in my studio.
2. I will not represent another artist's work for sale in my studio.
3. I agree to open my studio from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM on all three days of the tour and will be present during those hours.
4. My studio is an actual working studio and I will show visitors my workspace, materials, tools, works-in-progress, and demonstrate my art.

If I am a guest artist:

1. I agree to be present at my host studio from 10:00 am to 5:00 pm for the three days of the event.
2. I agree to present only the art which I create as stated in my application and understand that it is unacceptable to use the venue to sell anything other than my own artwork and prints of my art.
3. I will present a demonstration of my work and/or works in progress to help educate the visitors on my work processes.

All Participants:

1. Every artist is required to fill out an Open Studios feedback form that details what we did right, what we could do better and asks for your overall impressions of the event.
2. It includes a question on stating the range of revenue produced by your personal sales, such as $1,000 - $1,500. This question must be answered as it is important data to demonstrate our growth for grant purposes. Your specific information is not shared with anyone outside the executive committee.
3. One of the foundations of Open Studios is to provide an educational experience for our visitors, so every artist is required to either demonstrate their work processes or, if this is not possible, to storyboard some of their processes to encourage questions from studio visitors.

IV. Licenses and Insurance

- a) Personal Liability Insurance must be provided by the participant to cover possible injury to participants and the general public.
- b) A current Arizona Tax License must be obtained by the participant and all sales tax on sales of art work will be the responsibility of the participant. This license is called a Transaction Privilege Tax (TPT) and is available from the AZ Department of Revenue at <https://www.aztaxes.gov/Home>
- c) For artists selling inside the Sedona city limits, a current City of Sedona Sales Tax License must be obtained by the participant. All City of Sedona sales taxes will be the responsibility of the participant.

The participation (entry) fee covers marketing, including design and printing of the brochure, and other promotional efforts:

- a) Each artist is responsible for submitting two, high resolution, digital photographs for the Brochure. *Different than in the past, the photos must be part of your application and received by January 17th.
- b) Artists who are sharing studio space must submit their shared studio arrangements in writing as part of their application process.
- c) Press releases about the tour are sent out by the marketing team. We require that artists do not send out press releases on their own.
